(EDITOR'S NOTE: John Bonner, Rt. 2, Lake Villa, is one of six Illinois delegates participating in the 1969 International Farm Youth Exchange (IFYE). This educational six-month program involving 35 countries and 200 young people is conducted by the National 4-H Foundation for the Cooperative Extension Service and the Ministry of Agriculture in Germany. Financial support on the state level comes from the Illinois 4-H Foundation through 4-H Clubs, local organizations, business concerns, Rural Youth, and individuals interested in world understanding. The Lake County Farm Bureau and the Kellogg Foundation were major contributors to Bonner's program. Part of John's program responsibility is to share his experiences through a series of letters while in Ceylon and through programs when he returns. Until December, 1969, his address is John Bonner, c/o Miss Amaratil Karin Hinrichsen, Postfach BML, 53 Bonn, Duisdorf, Germany.)

It is Saturday night in the small Bavarian city of Karstadt that is located about twenty miles north of Wurzburg. It is a typical old Bavarian city with its red tile roofs and the surrounding ring of tree covered mountains. There is a big dance in the Ratskeller (City Hall) with beat music for the younger generation, but just a half block away one can find the more typical Saturday night life of Karstadt. It is a small restaurant. The wooden walls are covered with pictures depicting old German costumes and dances.

The twenty men in the restaurant are sitting in groups around three tables and everyone seems to know everyone. There is only one man who is eating. All the others are drinking beer or wine with lemonade. The four men around the corner table are very engrossed in a card game.

The game progresses very fast as each man slaps his card down on the table. The next table also has a card game going on, but it is somewhat quieter and slower, possibly because there are coins in the table that are about equivalent to pennies.

The discussion goes on until most of the week's problems have been discussed. It is about eleven o'clock when the discussion breaks down and the groups start home.

As we leave the restaurant most of the people walk on the street because the sidewalk is only wide enough for one person and since there are few cars driving on the narrow streets at night.

Water, Sewer Hookup Fees Hiked By Village

The Antioch Village Board of Trustees Tuesday night passed an ordinance which hiked the cost of sewer and water connections in the village.

The ordinance provides that water and sewer tap-ins at a single family residence now be $75 each, up $50 each from the previous fee.

Duplex and multi-family residences were hiked to $75 for each unit for each connection, also a $50 fee in the past.

Commercial hook-ins were set at $100 for each service, a $50 hike from the previous fee.

Industrial hook-ins were set at $100 to $250 depending on the size.

In other action the board voted to send all complaints and claims for damage done by the blacktopping of Lake Street to the state and Peter Baker & Co.

The only actual money complaint received thus far was from the First National Bank for $65. Hahn's Jewelry also has registered a complaint by letter but no money figure was placed on damage.

Many merchants and residents have complained because of the alleged damage done by the blacktopping being carried into stores and marring autos.

A complaint by James Fields, captain of the Antioch Rescue Squad about not being notified that the new police department building would shut off light and air into the squad was duly noted by the board.

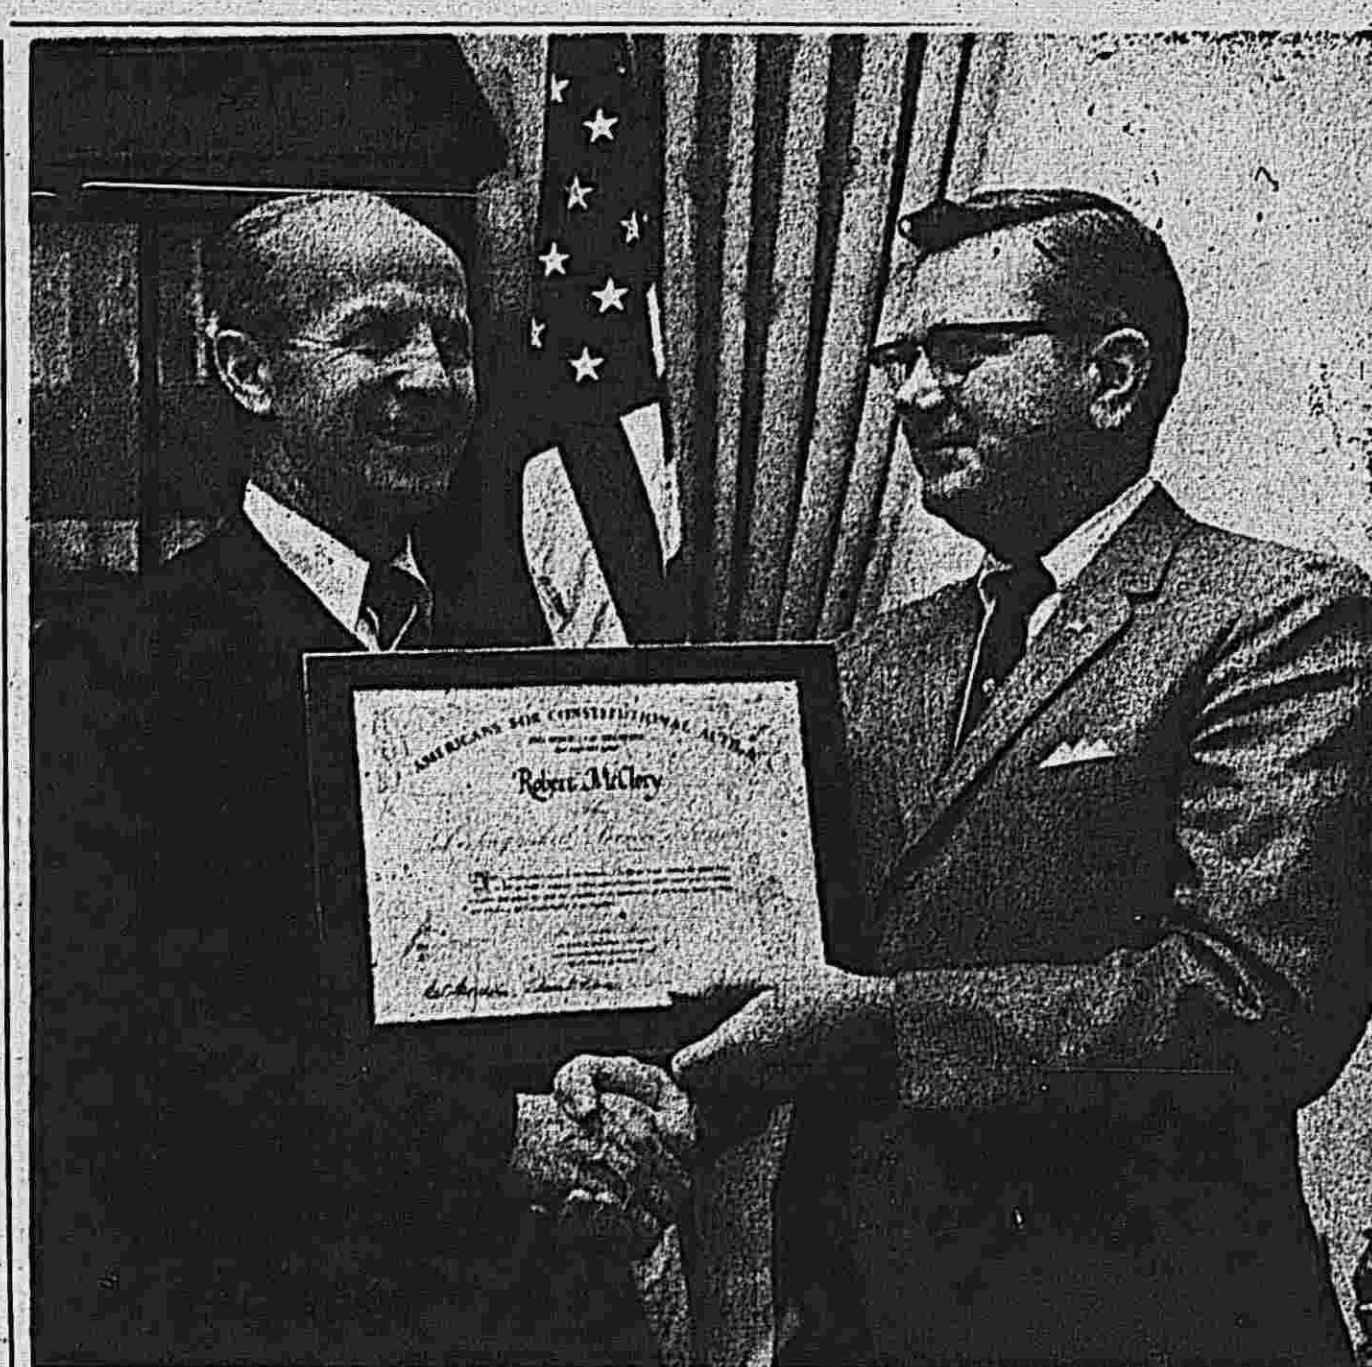

A move to provide air conditioning for the building is presently being studied.

Fields was told that the notification was merely an oversight and not an intended slight.

In other action the board voted to accept the BOCA Housing Code as the official code of the village.

The board also voted to annex Lots 21 and 22 of Smart's Ridge-moor Manor.

In final action the board voted to give Earl Lowe the formanship of the street department, necessitated by the illness of Edgar Simonsen.

Congressman Robert McClory, R-Lake Bluff, was presented with the Americans for Constitutional Action distinguished service award recently in Washington by Charles McManus, president of the association, right.

The annual Bausch & Lomb Honorary Science Award was presented to Wendy Jensen by Richard Elliston of Antioch Community High School.

In announcing the winner, Principal Albert L. Dittman said: "The B&L Science Award is especially significant. It makes possible recognition of the outstanding senior student having the highest scholastic standing in science subjects."

As a winner of the Honorary Science Award, Wendy is eligible to compete for a B&L Science Scholarship, at the University of Rochester.

Awards are based on merit, but stipends are based on need and range up to a full tuition.

The Science Award -- a handsome bronze medal -- is presented by more than 8,500 participating schools. Surveys have indicated that more than 30 per cent of the winners have been encouraged by the Award to follow scientific careers.

The Bausch & Lomb Science Award and Scholarship Programs have been officially approved by the National Association of Secondary-School Principals.

AARP Meeting Draws Best Crowd, 114

One of the best attended meetings by members of the Antioch Area Chapter 387, since its inception in the spring of 1965, was held on Nov. 25 in the community room of the Savings & Loan Building, at which time 14 members gathered to enjoy the "Hobby Show."

Most of the members attending brought their best hobby for display.

All of it was a real surprise to many living in the Antioch area by the amount of talent shown.

Most of the members present asked that the show be repeated during 1970, as there was just too much on hand to give all those with projects enough time allotted for real showing.

Lake county residents purchased a total of $740,073 in series E and H United States savings bonds and Freedom Shares in October according to Richard F. Kennedy and Richard D. Newland, Waukegan, Ill., general county co-chairmen of the savings bonds committee.

Sales in the state of Illinois were $24,000,103, according to Clarence S. Sochowski, state director of the Treasury's savings bonds division. National sales were $438,000,000 in October -- a 24-year peak for any October -- 2% higher than a year ago. The Illinois total represented 5.5% of the national total.

Jaycees Sponsor Mail Box

The Lake Region Jaycees are again sponsoring their Annual Santa's Mail Box. There will be two large mail boxes placed in the shopping areas of Antioch. One will be placed on Main Street and the other one will be in the Orchard Street Shopping Center.

The Jaycees sponsor this project to give the post office a helping hand with the many letters that they receive each year for Santa Claus. The Jaycees offer a service that the post office doesn't, and that is that the children mailing the letters to Santa Claus will receive an answering letter from him. We hope that this community service project will be as well received as it has been in the past.

The Lake Region Jaycees also want to announce that they will be selling large trash bags. These bags are made of plastic and are large enough to fit the normal garbage can. They are the same plastic bags that you see advertised on television as the 'one way garbage can.' The trash bags will be sold on a door to door basis by the Jaycees. They come in a box of fifty bags with ties for $3.00. Anyone wishing to purchase a box of trash bags may contact Ron Foreman at 395-0369 after 5 p.m.

The sale of these trash bags will help defray the expenses of the Santa's Mail Box Project as well as the other community service projects that the Lake Region Jaycees run throughout the year. Please Support Your Local Jaycees and Help Keep Our Village Clean.

Charmglow Sponsoring TV Special

Need For Permanent Campus Is Apparent

"The need for permanent college facilities is apparent when consideration is given to the fact that the College of Lake County opened with the largest beginning enrollment of any of the new junior colleges in the State," stated Dr. Melvin Nyman of Libertyville, who is serving as chairman of a group of citizens who have organized to actively seek support for the December 13th bond issue.

"By providing our local share, we will immediately qualify for $5,485,000 in State funds, and, in addition, the State has indicated that an additional $6,000,000 for the next phase of our program will be made available. Approval of our share will mean that we can proceed with plans for the campus, and construction can start in the near future," Nyman stated.

Some 2,588 students registered in September for classes at the College. This total far exceeded the most optimistic estimates that had been made and has already taxed the capacity of the interim facilities that were constructed. Projections indicate that the College will enroll 4,000 students next year and over 10,000 by 1978.

Speaking for the citizens, Nyman has stated, "It is hard to visualize anything that has had a more favorable impact on the county. Residents of the district have the opportunity to take a wide variety of courses within driving distance of their homes. Industry benefits from cooperatively planning with the College and the availability of technically trained employees. Business gains from funds spent in the area, and the communities reap the rewards of a learning center which serves the educational and cultural needs of the communities."

Dr. Richard Erzen and his administrative staff have already appeared before many groups in the district to explain the program. Erzen told the citizens' committee that response has been almost 100 per cent favorable.

EDITORIAL

Consult The People

"government of the people, by the people, and for the people..." Lincoln

Having become vitally involved in the Vietnamese conflict, the American public, or at least a vociferous minority of that public, has argued the illegality and immorality of our participation in that war.

Those against the war have made many a valuable criticism of our government's policies and institutions.

Yet while these people have presented some of the blatant contradictions any myths prevalent within our system, they have often failed to aim their attack at the very heart of the issue. That being that the American public has really had very little to say in deciding policy or even in influencing their country's general approach to the War in Vietnam.

This is the most fundamental, and to our nation, the most vital problem.

The real issue is not whether napalm is a desirable weapon, or whether the United States is working at cross-interests with itself in Vietnam, or even whether war and the bloodshed that comes with it are immoral.

These issues do not become relevant politically until those who feel one way or another about them are able to express their views with even the smallest assurance of being heard.

It matters not a whit what a man believes if his opinions have no bearing on the choice presented to him. How can a man claim to be free if he can in no way influence the policies of his society — policies later forced upon him?

This leaves one to ponder the amount of influence the American citizen has had in his government during the Vietnamese conflict. How much have his opinions counted in the general policy making within his government?

The American's first real chance to express himself came during the election of 1964 when the supposed moderat-dove Lyndon Johnson defeated Barry Goldwater. Despite a landslide victory for the "responsible" candidate, the American people found themselves cast into a war larger than the Korean conflict.

The American public has been lied to, double-crossed, misinformed, and worse than any of these forced to fight for a policy exactly comparable to that of the Presidential candidate which they so heartily repudiated in 1964. It is a sad commentary, indeed, that once public opinion is so forcefully expressed it is ignored by its election-time champion.

The Congress, which the American public is supposed to influence has not reacted to the discontent with the war to any meaningful extent. For political as well as military reasons it has declined to make a formal declaration of war, thus leaving themselves only the power to control the funds authorized for the War.

Once Mr. Johnson had taken control he escalated the war slowly and skillfully so that by the time the Congress had discovered its mistake the DEMOCRATICALLY controlled House was too embarrassed to withdraw or even hold back acquisition funds. The conflict had become laden with too many political considerations.

In this way the American public has been left with little influence and even less choice in this important conflict. Their personal views have come to mean nothing to their government and their leaders. The citizen is no longer a participant in his government; he is merely subject to its decisions. This is the fundamental problem in America today.

We must all look beyond the relatively minor issues of napalm, escalation, and bombing, and realize that before any of these issues can be solved we must first regain our power and influence in government.

Only if the American citizen is able to influence governmental decision and general policy will his beliefs be meaningful and he himself free. The real issue is in non-partisan and not relevant to one's personal Vietnam strategy.

It is a matter relevant and partisan only to free men.

ministration at Orphans of the Storm in Deerfield. The institution takes care of unwanted or unclaimed animals, attempting to find homes for them. On the average Lake County wardens deliver about 70 dogs and cats there each week. Strays are held in the county for three days. If unclaimed after that period they are transported to Orphans of the Storm.

The warden, speaking on the weekly radio series "This Week in Lake County," urged pet owners to keep animals confined to their property. He said, "It's really better for the pet and all concerned. Animals running loose can more easily contract a disease, not to mention the fact that it violates the law." Garwood also reminded pet owners to have their animals inoculated each year and attach the rabies tag to a collar. He said should the pet be picked up the tag is invaluable as a means of identification.

Any animal which has bitten a human must be confined in the custody of a licensed veterinarian for a period of ten days for observation. Should the animal die from rabies the bite victim would have to begin a series of shots to combat the disease, which untreated is fatal. This Lake County ordinance on confinement takes precedence over a new Illinois law which is not as stringent.

This movie has been presented throughout the county and has been received with great acclaim on all occasions. Butler will also display a kit containing the various drugs which addicts are using.

A member of "Teen Challenge, Inc.," who is a former drug addict, will also speak and tell of his experience with drugs and how he overcame using them.

"Teen Challenge, Inc." is a non-profit church related induction and rehabilitation program which gives aid and counsel to troubled youths, including drug addicts. Their assistance is by moral and spiritual means.

The public is urged to attend this meeting and a question and answer period will follow the speakers.

"Everyone is aware that the facilities for our permanent campus must be approved if we are to continue our development," Erzen said.

The permanent facilities will be located immediately to the south of the interim campus. The interim facilities were planned so that many of the developments can be made a part of the permanent campus. Utilities, parking lots, roadway lights, roadways, equipment, and furniture have been planned or purchased to be incorporated in the permanent plan.

Any organization wishing to hear more about the program or having any questions are urged to call the College Office, 223-8193.

Our town is very festive with the Christmas decorations. I noticed on one end of town the John Christensen's have their tree up already, and on the other end of town, Dr. Solar has his holiday lights around his house. & J. Mapleshorpe's & C. Cermak. Get Well.

Edgar Simonsen who is in Victory Memorial Hospital, Clarence Kufalk also. We hope to see you both home very soon. And Marge Walsh is back at school after recovering from surgery.

Santa arrived Saturday to the delight of many children. The Chamber should be thanked for the delightful promotion of helicopter rides for the kids. There were many happy smiling faces. Not to say about the delightful grins when they spoke to the man in the Red Suit at the Rescue Squad building, afterwards. Sure brings the holiday spirit to anyone watching these little darlings talk to Santa!!!!!!

Gentlemen:

The Antioch Community High School PTA and the "A" Club wish to thank the Community for again supporting our Benefit Basketball Game. "The Duel" on the Donkey proved to be one of the funniest happenings witnessed by a fun-loving full-house. The Antioch Grade School 8th Grade Team and St. Peter's 8th Grade Team put on an exciting pre-show game. We wish to thank these grammar schools, their coaches, the boys, the cheerleaders and their parents for their time and cooperation. Each year the support of the Community and Businessmen makes it all seem worthwhile. In addition, seeing everybody, young and old, working and playing as a unit restores your faith in human nature. Without the well-timed publicity given this affair by The Antioch News, we could hardly get the event in the public eye, which assures continued success. PTA and "A" Club THANK YOU ALL.

To the Editor:

As the 1969 Mental Health Campaign heads towards its conclusion, I would like to express my personal appreciation for the fine cooperation your newspaper is giving in covering the campaign.

The campaign was launched in May with a goal of $275,000. Before 1969 comes to an end on December 31st, I am confident that this goal will be surpassed. The funds collected help support the Mental Health Association's Five Point Program on behalf of the mentally ill.

I commend your newspaper for its public-spirited service and urge your continued support through November and December.

Sincerely,
Samuel H. Shapiro
Former Governor of Illinois
General Chairman
1969 Mental Health Campaign.

Dear Editor:

Thank you for your cooperation in publicizing National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week. With your help, we were able to encourage the disabled but qualified worker in his search for employment. With your help, we were able to communicate to employers and the general public the fact that a handicapped individual is not necessarily a handicapped worker, that the whole man is greater than the sum of his parts.

Although much progress has been made in gaining greater acceptance of handicapped individuals by employers, these persons still face more than their share of rejections in the search for jobs. Those who do succeed in finding a job are, far too often, started and kept in jobs far below their abilities and have incomes near the poverty level. They surmount one handicap only to be rewarded with yet another: a paralysis of their potential.

Without the help of the communications media, our progress in the placement of the handicapped individual is indeed an uphill struggle. May we continue to have your year-round support in turning these dependent citizens into independent self-supporting workers?

Sincerely yours,
Walter E. Parker
Superintendent, Illinois State Employment Service

Your Congressman Reports....

By Cong. Robert McClory

The recent Vietnam war moratorium has many facets and many implications. These cannot be summarized in any simple way. Certainly, not all who participated in the nationwide demonstration for peace NOW were unrealistic or irresponsible.

Most of the college students who appeared in the galleries of the House of Representatives during the so-called moratorium "debate" were clean, neatly attired, and well-mannered. Only a few appeared to be unshaven and unkempt.

The central theme which attracted many citizens, young and old, was that of an early peace—a complete withdrawal of American troops from Vietnam and an immediate cease-fire.

Perhaps, the most unfortunate part of the entire activity was its overtone of anti-Nixon sentiment—which failed to take into account the dramatic and substantial moves toward disengagement from Vietnam which President Nixon has taken during the nine months he has been in office.

These actions of the President have been in sharp contrast to the policy of the last Administration. Unfortunately, they have been belittled or ridiculed by many who claim that a unilateral cease-fire and an immediate withdrawal from Vietnam can bring permanent peace to our nation and to the world.

The advocates of immediate withdrawal are able to give no assurance that Communist-inspired war will not break out in Thailand, or the Philippines, or elsewhere in the Far East. Nor are they able to give assurances of the safety of the millions of South Vietnamese citizens including honorable public officials who have struggled for a generation to win their right to self-determination. Indeed, those who supported the Vietnam moratorium have been unable to indicate when, if ever, the American prisoners in North Vietnam will be permitted to communicate with their loved ones—let alone be released from imprisonment.

The slogan "Stop the War NOW" is not unlike early movements to "End the Bombing." The present and earlier movements demonstrate that the people of our nation seek peace. But, the only effect on the Vietnam war has been to encourage continuation of the war—with no apparent disposition to negotiate a peaceful settlement.

Those who take to the streets—seemingly fail to recognize our representative system of Government. By marching and sometimes by shouting they seek to impose their will on the electorate who by their votes have reposed both confidence and authority in their elected leaders. The Right of Petition guaranteed by Article I of our Constitution is fulfilled by letters, petitions, demonstrations, and other forms of communication with our Representatives in Government. But, in the last analysis, it is the elected officials who must govern and who must speak for the citizens in both domestic and international affairs.

In praising the recent steps taken by the President, former Vice President Hubert Humphrey declared significantly "We have only one President at a time, and I think the worst thing that we can do is to try to undermine the efforts of the President."

In his inaugural address, President Nixon spoke out earnestly and eloquently when he added a sacred commitment to his Constitutional Oath of Office in these words: "I shall consecrate my office, my energies, and all the wisdom I can summon to the cause of peace."

The policy subsequently adopted by the President includes: (a) Vietnamization of the War, (b) partial withdrawal of troops from Vietnam with complete withdrawal at the earliest practicable date, (c) suspension of draft calls for November and December, and (d) de-escalation of military activities in Vietnam.

The President has urged unity in support of his program. It seems logical to assume that his efforts toward establishing peace can be genuinely successful only

According to Nyman, the sole purpose of the committee is to make sure that everyone in the College district is completely informed of the need for permanent College facilities. This third step in the College development will assure the continued advancement of educational opportunities for the youth and adults in the Lake County area. The first step was accomplished when the district was formed and the second step was accomplished when a representative board was elected.

If supported by a unified nation. Some who participated in the Vietnam moratorium are giving such support to the President's move toward peace. All would be well advised to consider thoughtfully the effect of the actions in pursuit of the call of all of us for an early and lasting peace for our nation—and for the world.

Bill Would Aid Parents Of Students

Congressman Robert McClory (R-Lake Bluff) has this week introduced a bill in the U.S. House of Representatives which would amend the Internal Revenue Code to provide tax credits to parents of children attending college.

McClory, who was joined by over 40 members of the House in introducing the bill, said the measure would provide maximum tax benefits for lower and middle income taxpayers for expenses of sending children to college and other approved institutions of higher education.

The bill sets a maximum of $325 annually as a credit against the income taxes of eligible taxpayers. It allows the maximum credits to those taxpayers, whose adjusted gross income is $15,000 yearly or less.

The bill permits a tax credit of 100 percent for the first $200 spent on higher education; 25 percent of expenses from $200 to $500; and five percent of expenses from $500 to $1500. For an eligible family sending one or more children to college and spending more than $1500 per year for tuition and fees, the total tax saving would be the full $325 each year.

Credits set by the bill would apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1970.

"The measure recognizes the importance of higher education to the nation, encourages use of private educational institutions instead of continually building pressure on state institutions, and provides help to those needing it most instead of subsidizing all students regardless of need," McClory concluded.

Even seasoned drivers may not know all they should about careful passing. When you are going to pass, it is essential that you know how to judge the distance and speed you'll need to get safely around the car ahead. For instance, to pass an auto doing 45 miles an hour, you should do 60 miles an hour. And you'll need about one-quarter of a mile to make a safe passing maneuver. After you have passed the car ahead, guard against a tendency to slow down too quickly.

pollutants and 90 per cent of the gaseous sulfur oxides from power plant boiler exhausts.

In announcing Commonwealth Edison's participation in the program, Chairman J. Harris Ward said:

"We are glad to enlarge Commonwealth Edison's commitment to air quality improvement by aiding this effort to develop what appears to be a promising solution to sulfur dioxide recovery. A successful process of this sort would produce long-term benefits for the public by helping to maintain the low cost of electric service and by providing an alternative to the limited availability of low-sulfur fuels."

A B&W-Esso Research group has been studying and evaluating the process for more than two years, and more than $2 million has already been invested toward the objective of developing a commercially available unit by 1973. Plans call for recovering sulfur dioxide in the form of marketable sulfuric acid to partially offset costs of the system.

Rush hours require extra patience and skill. The extra crowding sometimes forces motorists into quick decisions. Good drivers always remain calm and courteous, even under trying rush hours conditions.

Social Notes

By Del Jahneke

The Bernard DeVries family returned from a combination hunting party and a family visit at Sparta, Wis., on the Nov. 21st weekend. "Bernie", with two of his brothers, went hunting in the Homan, Wis., vicinity, and there he shot a small doe, weighing 80 pounds, the first day of hunting. At Sparta, the Antioch DeVries' were guests of the Sam DeVries, "Bernie's" parents.

Mrs. Edith Wenthe of Chicago, was a Thanksgiving weekend guest of the Ray Rathmann family, Oakwood Knolls. Mrs. Wenthe is Mrs. Rathmann's mother. A large family Thanksgiving dinner was enjoyed by all, with Mrs. Edna Rathmann as hostess.

Bobby Dunlap, Jr., Grass Lake, celebrated his sixth birthday with three birthday parties. Six young friends were entertained on Nov. 29th, with a family party on Nov. 30th. Another family party was held on Dec. 1, his actual birthday. Originally only two parties were planned, but various activities necessitated a change. For some reason young Bobby doesn't mind at all.

The Michael Beckers of Detroit, Mich., who have a wide circle of friends in Antioch, also spent the weekend at Dunlap's. On Sunday both Dunlaps and Beckers were afternoon guests of the Allan Knutesons, and then the two families enjoyed dinner at Pastor Bernard Fosmark's home.

Legion Auxiliary

By Del Jahneke

At the November meeting of the Antioch American Legion Auxiliary No. 748, held in the Antioch American Legion Home, many contributions were made to various Auxiliary programs. $90.00 was given to the seven-point program of rehabilitation.

This program consists of 1—Treasure Chest—which supplies creature comforts, parties, treats, etc., for hospitalized patients; 2—Insulin—this medication supplied to veterans with low income. 3—Canteen Books—this program puts a $1 canteen book in the hands of needy veterans who otherwise have no spending fund. 4—Christmas Gift Shop, which will be covered later in this article. 5—Easter Gifts—through this program, each veteran with little or no income, in 26 state and veterans' hospitals, receives an attractive gift from the Illinois American Legion Auxiliary. 6—Hospitality Fund—through these funds, all hospitals are assured of monthly entertainment, and 7—Veterans Craft Exchange—these donations help pay for the maintenance of the Exchange Shop.

Donations were made to both sections of the Auxiliary Loan, Education and Scholarship Program, according to Mrs. Frank Kennedy, Chairman, so that the Antioch American Legion Auxiliary may now sponsor an eligible high school graduate for higher educational assistance.

Mrs. William Dowden, Child Welfare Chairman, asked the unit to contribute $18.00 to the Child Welfare Pledge, which goes to a state fund for the children at the Illinois Sailer and Soldier's Children's School at Normal. Both the Illinois American Legion and the Auxiliary help support this school.

Americanism Chairman, Mrs. Walter Hills, reported that fifteen 50-star American classroom flags were presented to the St. Peter's Catholic Grade School.

Mrs. Trudi Nelson, Membership

Chairman, stated that the Antioch Unit now had 58 paid up members. Forty-two more members for the Antioch Unit to obtain their 100% membership. All eligible women in this community are cordially invited to join the Antioch American Legion Auxiliary.

Invited guests are the members' husbands, and the Antioch Post and their wives. There will be a $1.00 gift exchange. Following a very brief business meeting, the remainder of the evening will be spent playing card games.

Hostess chairman is Mrs. Bernard DeVries, and committee members are Mrs. John L. Horan, Mrs. James McMillen, Mrs. Anton Johnson and Mrs. Burt Anderson.

Brightly colored Christmas decorations and gifts galore are in store for hospitalized veterans at Downey Hospital on December 4, and 5, from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. The Volunteers' Room, Building Four, has been transformed into a gay Christmas shopping mall. In this yuletide atmosphere, the patients may select Christmas gifts for their entire family from a wide selection of children's dolls, toys and games; women's purses, scarves, etc. These gifts are all donated by the Illinois American Legion Auxiliary to every veterans' hospital in the state. The patient chooses his presents and writes an enclosure card. Auxiliary volunteer hospital workers then holiday gift wrap their selected presents, and also, addresses and mails them to the veteran's family, all at no cost to the veteran.

The 10th District American Legion Auxiliary will hold their annual Christmas Dance Party on Dec. 11th, from 7 to 9 p.m., at Downey Hospital. ## Orphan Girl Now Playing At New Club

Elegant Dining, uniformed waitresses, arena theatre with a hero, a villain, a heroine, a mortgage, "do-gooders", and "evil-doers" all added up to the enjoyment of the audiences who attended "Only An Orphan Girl" this weekend presented by PM&L at the new Antioch Country Club Playhouse.

The production directed by Don Beveroth will be presented Friday and Saturday evenings for three more weekends from Nov. 28 through Dec. 13. Dinner time is 6:30 p.m. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m. For dinner-theatre reservations or general theatre admission call 395-3000 or 395-1217.

Audiences both Friday and Saturday night seemed to enjoy the theatre in the square melodrama and joined in the action of hissing and booing the villain and cheering and applauding the hero and heroine. Several vocal presentations were rendered by Bonnie Mosler from the Park Forest Players who then led the audience in old-time community singing before the play began and at intermission.

Then on with the show—the villain, Al Ramsay, was suave and convincingly devious and despicable. Mavourneen Scalero, the Orphan Girl, was never-ceasingly sweet and innocent and knew all during her trials, tribulations, and near death that "right would triumph." Stalwart hero, Don Beveroth was all honesty, goodness and light as he rescued the farm and the Orphan Girl.

Tom Riggs as the hero's father and Geri Duncan as the mother—both being the foster parents of the Orphan Girl were in turn proud, loving, scandalized, irate, heartbroken, and finally jubilant at the triumph of right.

Dee D'Isa and Robert Lindblad added verve and comedy to the very serious breath-taking plot, and Becky Beveroth added the finishing touch of sugar and spice to the entire production in spite of the fact that it was she who spilled the beans about the mortgage money in the coffee pot.

The entire family will enjoy this old-time melodrama. Come join in the hissing, booing, and cheering and wear your mustache (presented to you by your usherette). Also enjoy this weekend the musical virtuosity of Cheryl Hughes at the keyboard and the PM&L Quartet composed of Ken Smouse, Richard Hughes, Rich Irmen, and Bill Sereson.

Miss Chris Hunt, of 909 David St., Antioch, a freshman at St. Procopius College, Lisle, was among the 10 models at a luncheon and fashion show of the college's Women's Auxiliary Nov. 18 at the Holiday Inn, Glen Ellyn.

Brownie News

Brownie Troop 60 held a very different, and interesting program last Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Robert (Joy) Manuel, leader of the troop, had an American flag that was quite shredded from use, and wanting to dispose of it in the proper way, she asked Jim Nikolai what to do.

The girls marched out of the Lindenhurst Civic Center with the Troop flag and the American flag. They sang "The Star Spangled Banner" and other patriotic songs while walking to the old Village Hall, where they were to have their flag burning ceremony.

When they reached the tree, they lined a grill with aluminum foil and placed the flag in there to burn. While the flag burned, the girls recited the pledge of allegiance. When it was all burned, the ashes were wrapped in the foil (the flag must never touch the ground) and then placed in the hole that had been prepared. Then each girl placed a handful of dirt in the hole and covered the spot with leaves. The singing of "Day Is Done" completed the ceremony. And then they marched back to the Civic Center.

Men's Club Meeting

The Lindenhurst Men's Club will meet Thursday, Dec. 4, at 8 p.m. at the civic center on Old Elm Road. All men in Lake Villa Township are invited to join them. Joe Cassidy is president. Plans for the New Year's Eve Party will be finalized.

McClory Is Honored In Capital

U.S. Rep. Robert McClory, R-Lake Bluff, of the 12th District of Illinois was honored Monday of last week in the Nation's Capitol.

Congressman McClory was presented the Distinguished Service Award by the Board of Trustees of the non-partisan Americans for Constitutional Action.

ACA's Distinguished Service Award is bestowed every two years upon those legislators whose voting records in the Congress of the United States support legislation which serve to

SEDOL Advantages In Programs Cited

Antioch Community High School is a member of the Special Education District of Lake County (SEDOL).

This is a voluntary group of schools that banded together for the purpose of providing facilities for the exceptional child.

For example, high school students clinically diagnosed as educable mentally handicapped from Round Lake High School, Grayslake High School, Grant High School, Warren High School, and Antioch High School, attend classes at Antioch Community High School. Through this co-operation in SEDOL, a more adequate program is offered to the children requiring it.

At Antioch are two full-time EMH teachers who presently have a load of 27 students. There are seven freshmen, eight sophomores, seven juniors, and five seniors.

Class size ranges from four to fifteen based upon content and individual needs. These teachers are supervised by a traveling supervisor whose experience is more than 10 years and who holds a master's degree in special education. Their curriculum revolves around three elements: language arts, practical math, and American living.

In these three areas, program materials are utilized that are specifically written for the EMH child. Home economics and industrial arts are a part of the EMH child's roster.

In summation, the EMH child may attend a full day of classes either designed specifically with their handicap in mind or that emphasizes the practical side of life.

When an EMH child reaches his junior year, he is eligible to attend classes a half day and to work a half day. In this work, physical labor is emphasized, although individual skills may be developed.

Remuneration ranges from the minimum wage ($1.65) to about 10% above it.

SEDOL has set up a cooperative relationship with the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation so that during the freshman year, the student is formally involved with DVR. DVR then provides a small stipend toward the child's cost of education.

This increases in the junior year, if the child works, to supplying transportation. A prevocational counselor works with the child during the junior year in preparing him for work and in supporting and obtaining work.

At the time work is obtained, the child's work supervision shifts back to the EMH teacher, who bears continuing responsibility for the child. When the child graduates, DVR will then pay from 50 to 100 per cent of the cost of further training.

The EMH facilities include one 40 x 25 classroom, the use of a rotating classroom, a tape recorder, a language master, and additional audio-visual aids from the general school. These facilities do not appear to isolate or segregate EMH children from the general population.

In closing, we would like to briefly mention Antioch's provision for other types of exceptional strengthen and defend the spirit and principles of the Constitution of the United States.

In presenting the award to Congressman McClory, Admiral Ben Moreell, Chairman of the Board of Trustees, stated: "On behalf of our Trustees, I have the pleasure of congratulating you and thanking you for your outstanding record in the Congress and devotion to those fundamental principles of good government which serve to promote individual rights and responsibilities; a sound dollar; a growing economy; and a desire for victory over communist aggression."

"The acceptance of this award does not imply that you are in complete agreement with all of the principles espoused by ACA nor does it imply any commitment for you to support them in the future," emphasized Admiral Moreell. "Our purpose is solely to honor you for your dedication to the Constitution of the United States."

Upon receiving the award, Congressman McClory thanked Admiral Moreell and stated: "I want to commend the Americans for Constitutional Action for their continuous commitment to principles of good government. Such dedicated commitment is supported by all responsible Americans."

Congressman McClory is now serving his 4th term as a Member of the United States Congress and serves on the important Judiciary Committee.

children. Although not as broad and intense as the special education facility, they are certainly worthy of note.

Partial-sighted children are supervised and taught by two itinerant teachers who give two hours per day to the school. There are two children in this program.

An itinerant teacher spends one hour per day with hearing-impaired children.

Itinerant teachers work closely with the counselors and the teachers of the high school to assure close communications and optimum learning opportunity. Counselors refer physically handicapped students to the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation for post high school assistance as well as assisting the students with their plans for continuing education or vocation.

The high school has organized a corps of volunteer student tutors who assist those students requesting tutoring in difficult subjects. This student tutoring corps is supervised by teachers and administered by the Guidance Office.

A professional social worker spends one day a week with disturbed children from the normal population and 2/3 a day per week with the EMH program. A psychologist is available for testing.

Finally, a prevocational counselor works with EMH children in obtaining work for them. From the point that work is obtained, the supervision of the child is the responsibility of the EMH teacher.

Tips Given Students In Contest

If you're an Illinois high school senior, here are some suggested tips for you to follow when planning your essay for the 1969-70 Illinois Editors' Traffic Safety Seminar contest, which provides for 10 top prizes of $500 Chicago Motor Club scholarship grants:

—Special attention will be given to your essay if it shows original thought based upon a thorough knowledge of today's traffic safety problems in the United States.

—The judges are interested in your ideas about traffic safety, not only those found in driver education textbooks.

—Apply your own experience, both as a driver and as a passenger.

—Don't forget to keep your essays within the 500-word maximum.

—Don't forget to direct your writing to the assigned theme of the contest—"My Program for Improving America's Traffic Safety Record."

—Don't forget to affix an official entry blank to your essay. These are available from your school principal or from Seminar Headquarters, 66 E. South Water St., Chicago, Ill. 60601.

—Don't forget your rules of grammar and sentence structure.

—Don't forget: your essay must be received at Seminar Headquarters no later than Dec. 31, 1969, if it is to be eligible for preliminary judging.

Legion Aux. . .

ville, District Rehabilitation Chairman stated.

On Saturday, Dec. 13th, the 10th District American Legion and the Auxiliary will have their Christmas Gift Caravan to the three Lake County orphanages, District Child Welfare co-chairmen John Jones, North Chicago; and Mrs. William Franzen, Vernon Unit; welcome anyone wishing to participate in this program. Members will meet at the Sharrvin American Legion Home, at 10:30 a.m., and will then proceed to the Arden Shore Home in Lake Bluff. The Homes have requested large gifts for all the children.

After the presentation and visit with the children, the group will then meet at the Lake Region's Legion Home in Fox Lake, at 12:30 p.m. There, "Santa" and his red sleigh, laden with Christmas gifts, by courtesy of the Lake Region's Legion and Auxiliary; will then visit the Lake Villa Central Baptist Children's Home and the Allendale School for Boys.

Mr. Wm. Dowden, Antioch unit child welfare chairman, says that this program is always a happy and rewarding experience for all who participate in it.

The increase became effective Nov. 24, according to R. J. Van Liere, CMPC president.

CMPC is an organization of 18 Wisconsin and Illinois dairy farmer cooperatives which supplies most of the milk for Chicago, Milwaukee, Madison and north-eastern Wisconsin markets.

The bottled milk price to be charged dealers in Chicago will be $6.10 per hundredweight, due to expense of additional transportation.

These prices will be charged to handlers only for milk sold for fluid consumption.

The newly announced Class I price represents an increase of 30 cents per hundredweight over the present price of $5.73 being paid in the 85-mile area (including Milwaukee County, Wis., and Winnebago County, Ill.). The current Class I price has prevailed since May of this year.

Dairy farmers are paid a blend of the Class I price and a Class II (manufacturing) milk price. The producer blend price fluctuates proportionately with the amount of milk used in each class.

A Class I price of $6.03 per hundredweight is equivalent to 26.2 cent per half gallon paid by handlers for milk used in bottling.

Each scholarship winner may attend any one of the 273 colleges and universities offering the four-year army ROTC program. Except for officer training subjects, which are taught by army professors of military science, the ROTC student pursues the same academic courses in the field of his choice as any other student.

Application closing date is Jan. 15, 1970. Announcement of scholarship winners will be made in the spring of 1970. The scholarships become effective with the opening of the 1970-71 school year.

Since part of the scholarship selection is based on the scholastic aptitude test (SAT) or the American College Testing Program (ACT) test, high school students who intend to compete for one of the awards should take one of these tests given nationwide on Nov. 1, 1969 for the SAT and Dec. 6, 1969 for the SAT and ACT. It is the responsibility of the individual student to have his test scores sent to the Army ROTC Scholarships, HQ Fifth U.S. Army Fort Sheridan, Illinois 60037.

Any student or counselor desiring information or applications for the four-year scholarship program should write Army ROTC Scholarships, HQ, Fifth U.S. Army, Fort Sheridan, Illinois 60037.

Antioch Loses Three At Barrington Tourney

The third annual "Turkey Day" Classic was held at Barrington on Nov. 26, 28, and 29. The Antioch Sequoits lost to Barrington 72-55, to Holy Cross 79-67 and to Mundelein in overtime 59-58. During the tournament the Sequoits showed steady improvement, but also indicated a lack of some fundamental skills.

In the Barrington game, the Sequoits just couldn't rebound with the Broncos as they pulled out to an early lead and maintained the lead of 7 to 10 points during the whole game. The Sequoits passing game was rather spotty, as they committed 16 bad passes. Keith Bolton lead the Sequoits scoring attack with 26 points and Jeff Sterbenz lead the rebounders with 8 grabs.

The Holy Cross game was close all the way, with Holy Cross leading by 4 to 7 points. The big difference in the game was the free throw situation, as the Holy Cross team converted 31 free throws to only 13 by the Sequoits. Again the Sequoits failed to gain the upper hand on the boards as Holy Cross out rebounded Antioch 49 to 34. Tom Martin and Jeff Sterbenz lead the rebound attack for the Sequoits with 10 and 9 respectively.

In the final game of the tournament for the Antioch Sequoits, they, by far, played their best game of the season. The team defense and turnover mistakes were very good as the Sequoits lead the whole game by a 4 to 6 point margin, only to lose in an overtime. The Sequoits could have broken the game wide open, but their poor shooting really hurt as they hit only 18 of 64 attempts for a 28%. For the first time this season, the Antioch cagers out rebounded their opponents 55 to 34, but they failed to make the baskets. With 30 seconds remaining, the Sequoits were ahead 53-50 and Romaine shooting a 1 and 1 free throw situation. The shot was missed and Booth of Mundelein came down to score and was fouled. He made the free throw to tie the game and force the overtime period.

In the overtime, Mundelein jumped out to a quick three point lead and with only one second remaining, Marty Romaine sank a basket to narrow the score 59 to 58, Mundelein the winner.

The next games for the Antioch cagers will be Friday and Saturday at home. On Friday they meet a conference pre-season favorite Warren High School. Then on Sat. a new opponent for the Sequoits, Kenosha Tremper. "Our team is progressing along, the juniors are improving and we have been real pleased with the play of Jeff Sterbenz." "We need to improve our rebounding and ball handling, some of this will develop with more game experience, but we feel we are ready now to upset the Warren Blue Devils on Friday evening. Our defense and the improved play of Keith Bolton will be big factors from now on too," stated Coach Andrews and Coach Hahn.

Keith Bolton had his best evening on the boards Saturday as he tied the school record for rebounds in a single game. Keith grabbed 25 rebounds to tie the old record of 25 held by Bill Smith in 1967 against Lake Zurich.

Sportsmen's Club To Hold Meeting

The annual meeting of the McHenry Sportsmen's Club will be held on Thursday, Dec. 4 at 8:30 p.m. Nominations will be presented for new officers for the coming year.

St. Peter's Win One, Lose Two

NOV. 30, 1 P.M. at Wauconda Gym. Sixth Grade—St. Peter's Nabers went down to defeat to the Wauconda Chargers on Sunday at the opponents' gym.

The score after the first quarter was tied 8-8, but Wauconda jumped way out at the half with an 18-8 lead.

The final score was 27-11. The boys tried their best, but it was not good enough.

Seventh Grade—The boys tried their best, but again the team went down in defeat. They played good ball, but their opponents were bigger and faster. The score at half time was 15-8 in favor of Wauconda. The final score was 25-15.

Eighth Grade—This team saved the day! With beautiful team work, they were able to build up an early lead. First quarter score was 22-6 in favor of St. Peter's. At the half the score was 40-13. Never a doubt, the boys never lost their cool, and went on to win by 58-22. Good work!

Tim O'Neil was high scorer with 17 points.

Coach Don Pyles worked overtime, in the absence of Coach John Hedberg. He coached all three games.

Bowlers Will Compete

Barney Hochstadler's 30th annual "original" Junior Individual Six-Game Classic for bowlers with averages under 155, will be held over 17 week-ends, starting Feb. 7, in Humboldt Bowl, 3239 W. North Ave., Chicago.

Rudy Rudak, secretary of the "meet" for the second straight year, pointed out that it's the richest pin event for bowlers with restricted averages. He said:

"Bowlers have taken home $1,651.49 in cash prizes in the last 29 tournaments."

For the second straight year, women bowlers also have been invited to compete in the Hochstadler tournament. More than 100 women bowled in the 29th annual tournament, with Bernice Kelling of Chicago, with 1,161, finishing 40th for the best finish by a member of the distaff side.

Paul C. Sweeney of Elgin, Ill., won last year's title, bowling 1,246 pins to earn top prize of $10,000. Charles J. Neill of Chicago was runner-up with 1,229 for $5,000, and Clarence Rohman of Crown Point, Ind., finished third with 1,224 for $2,500.

Based on an estimated entry of 3,000 bowlers, this year's top three prizes also will be $10,000, $5,000, and $2,500.

Reservations are now being taken for choice days and bowling squad times from individuals as well as sponsors or organizers of squads of 24 bowlers each. They will be accepted thru Jan. 10. Entries will definitely close on Jan. 17.

hobby stocks on both nights cards.

The definite opening date will be announced at the annual owners and drivers meeting scheduled for Sunday afternoon, March 8, at the Lake Villa VFW Hall. The meeting will begin at 2 p.m. with registration, rules interpretation, track policy and the season's schedule to be discussed.

Promoter Gordon Sill has also stated there will be an announcement of "vital interest" made to the owners and drivers assembled at that time. Apparently this announcement will deal with an improved prize distribution in the 1970 season.

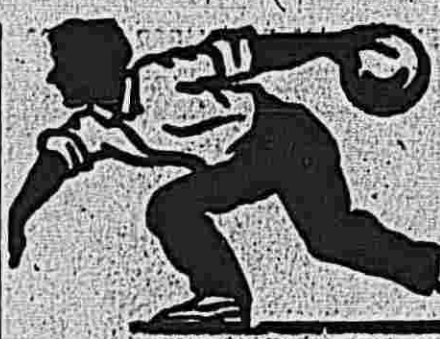

The annual Waukegan Speedway Trophy Dance and Awards Night was Saturday, Oct. 18, at the VFW Hall in Lake Villa. Another overflow crowd was in attendance with over 35 trophies being awarded besides cash and merchandise prizes.

Ray Young of Dolton was crowned the 1969 late model champion as he out-pointed Bob Roper of Chicago and Jim Cossman of Waukegan. Besides a cash award and a huge trophy, Young received a colored television set along with the right to paint "No. 1" on the side of his 1970 entry.

Young Tom Reuss of Wildwood ran away with the hobby stock division title, winning 26 events, including 11 features on the track to his first title. George Garrett of Zion captured second spot in the standings in the final week of competition, nosing out Chuck Clark of Wauconda.

Among the special awards were portable radios presented by Ace Antenna Service to Jim Cossman in the late model division and Mrs. Cora Merton of Zion in the hobby division for being voted the "Most Popular Driver" in their division in 1969. Bob May of Gurnee took the "Most Improved Driver" trophy in the late model class while George Garrett did likewise in the hobby division.

Verne Browne of Wauconda was voted the "Rookie of the Year" in the late models as he won seven races and finished 14th in points while Jim Smith of Waukegan took that honor in the hobby class. Awards for "Best Looking Car" went to Bob May and Rich Sundling of Chicago for their late models and Cliff Burdette of Sturtevant in hobbies.

Rockford Leading New Loop

The Continental Basketball Association finished its second week of action with the Rockford Royals sweeping two home games and taking sole possession of first place.

Ken Barnes, Sterling; Burke; George Price, Ron Dunlap, and Harry Hall of Rockford, all scoring over 20 points, upset the brilliant shooting of Hubie Marshall; 46 points and Art Crump, 33 points, for Decatur.

The final score in this free scoring game was Rockford 158 and Decatur 151.

The next night, Rockford overcame a 7 point half-time deficit to defeat Grand Rapids 127-112. This time it was Craig Spitzer and Jim Burnes joining Hall and Dunlap for a 20 point plus evening.

Grand Rapids missed the scoring and rebounding strength of Dennis Stewart and Ed Burton who were unable to play.

In other league action, the Cudahy Medalist Mods saw an early 12-2 lead over the Decatur Bullets evaporate into a 27-24 deficit at the end of the first quarter. Wayman Stewart, 23 points, and Max Walker, 22 points, paced the Mods to a comeback victory of 114-106.

A crowd of over 1,600 saw the Mods control the boards 78-60. Before a hometown crowd of 1,100, the Peoria Chiefs took an early lead of 31-16 and kept up the pace to a 117-95 victory over the Waukegan Wizards.

Clarence Brown and Tom Gordon of Peoria tied for scoring honors with 27 points apiece, while Brown's 15 rebounds paved the way to a 60-37 edge.

Coast Guard Issues Boat Warning

The United States Coast Guard Boating Safety Detachment wishes to remind hunters and fishermen that Coast Guard statistics reveal that the majority of fatal accidents involve boats of less than 26 feet in length, of which approximately one-half have no engine or are powered by engines of 10 horsepower or less.

If you intend to use a boat while hunting or fishing, observe these simple, common sense rules of safe boating:

1. Have an accessible Coast Guard approved life saving device on board for each person. Preferably, wear flotation equipment.
2. Observe and obey the nautical "Rules of the Road."
3. Load your boat within its limits, distribute loads evenly throughout the boat.
4. Avoid standing in the boat. If movement is necessary, keep low and toward the boat centerline.
5. Consider the sea and weather conditions before leaving the dock.
6. Further information concerning boating safety or Federal boating laws may be obtained by contacting the local Coast Guard unit in your area, or by contacting the Boating Safety Detachment at 610 South Canal Street, Chicago, Illinois 60607.

"Eleven years ago, even my wife told me I was crazy to put in Electric Heat."

Back in 1958, you didn't find many people with enough nerve to install an electric heating system when they built a new home. People said it was outrageously expensive...and terribly unreliable. But Ferd Larson believed differently...and even though Mrs. Larson was against it, he was determined to have electric heat.

Over the years, the Larsons have been convinced they made the right decision. Because the only repairs they've needed in eleven years have amounted to a new fan motor and a few adjustments—nothing more. And today, they heat their 7-room home for just a little more than $200 a year.

Over 35,000 families in Northern Illinois heat their homes electrically...and 10,000 more will join them this year. Shouldn't you find out about electric heat? It's really true what they say...

Age Of Leisure Is In Full Bloom

The "age of leisure" is upon us, says the Chicago Motor Club-AAA, and it shows every sign of booming onward and upright in years to come.

The CMC and several American Automobile Association-affiliated motor clubs across the country have just completed an extensive study of their members' travel habits, with results published in a booklet entitled "And Away We Go."

The most significant finding of the study is that AAA members are now taking some 52 per cent more vacation trips than they were in 1963. With the addition of four new three-day holidays to the 1971 calendar, the travel surge is expected to continue.

The study depicts AAA members as the "travelingest" people in the country, who can be expected to give the earliest indications of any coming trends in motoring and leisure-time activities of the general population. The study showed, for example, that members of AAA motor clubs:

- represent 3 per cent of the total U.S. adult population;
- own 18 per cent of all private passenger cars in the country;
- hold 15 percent of all U.S. driver's licenses;
- drive their cars 60 per cent more per year than the national average;
- account for 23 per cent of all two-or-more-car families;
- represent 20 per cent of all U.S. households earning over $10,000 a year, and 30 per cent of all households earning $15,000 or more;
- spend 20 per cent of the total money spent by all Americans on domestic vacation travel, and almost one-half of the overseas travel dollars;
- hold more than half of all currently valid U.S. passports.

The survey also revealed that AAA members in their motoring travels, are frequently annoyed by confusing or inadequate direction signs, unclear restrooms, traffic congestion in urban areas, and large trucks and buses. According to the survey, AAA members, when guests in motels, expect to find TV, restaurant facilities, guest coffee-maker, and free self-service ice as standard facilities.

New Medical Benefits For Veterans

Two new medical benefits for service-disabled war veterans are authorized in legislation approved recently by the President, John F. Kennedy, manager of the Veterans Administration office in Chicago, announced today.

Naser said that war veterans who are totally and permanently disabled from service-connected causes can now receive outpatient care at VA hospitals and clinics for non-service connected conditions as well as for their service-connected conditions.

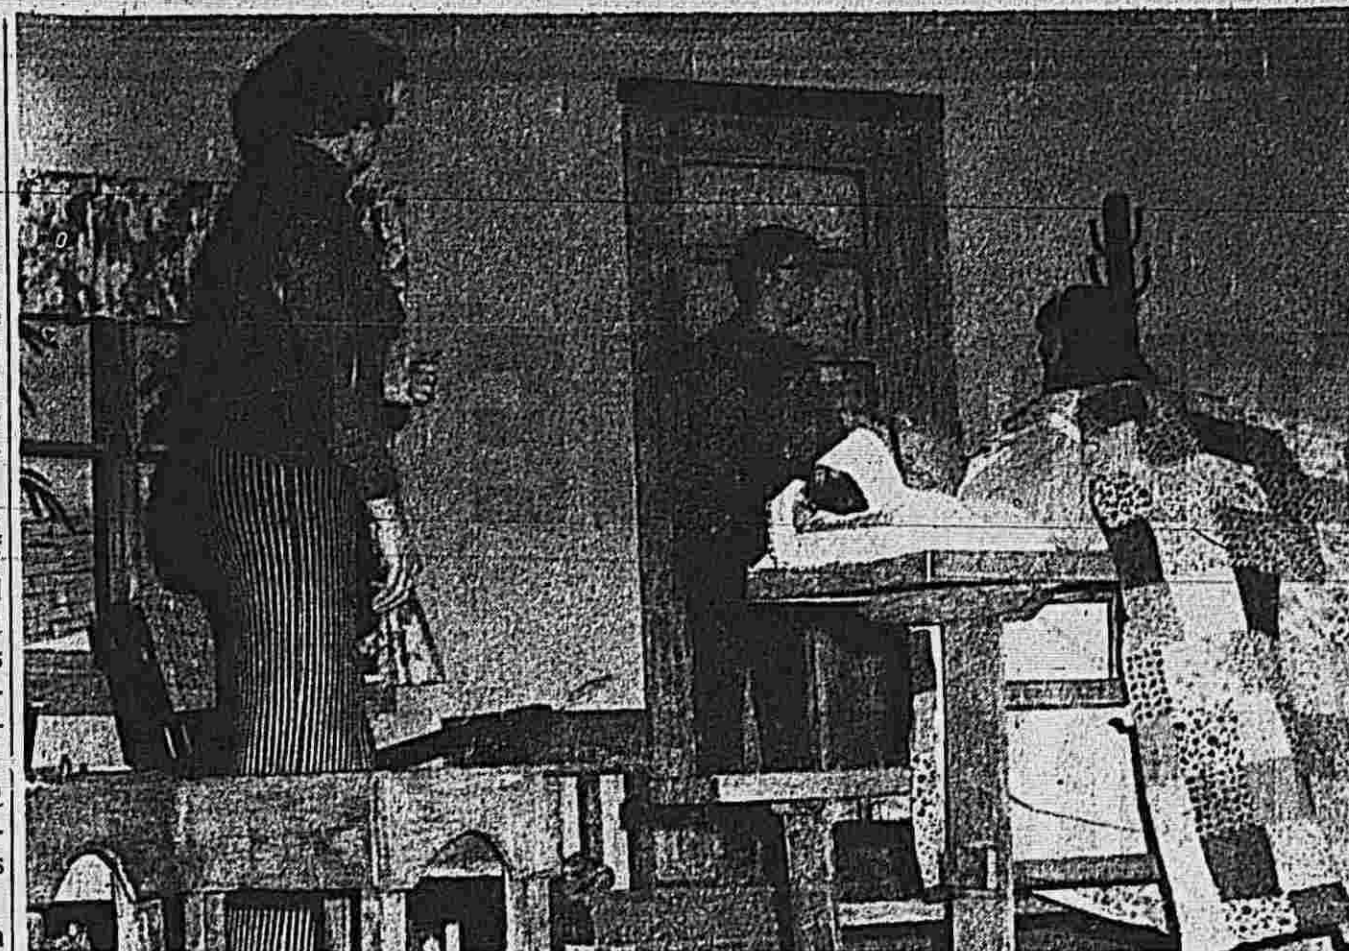

He explained that outpatient care has, in the past, been available only for medical conditions that were service related.

The new rules, authorized in Public Law 91-102, dated Oct. 30, 1969, entitle the war veteran in service-connected total disability status to medical care without the need for investigation as to the exact relation of a particular condition and the service-connected disability, Naser explained.

Also approved on Oct. 30 was Public Law 91-101 which removes the six-month time limit on providing care in private nursing homes for veterans who are hospitalized primarily for a service-connected disability.

The law does not remove the six month limit as it applies to non-service-connected cases, Naser explained.

Care in private nursing homes is authorized at VA expense, the manager said, only when a veteran needs continued nursing care after he has received the maximum benefit from hospitalization in a VA hospital.

In most cases, he said, nursing care can be arranged in community facilities closer to the veteran's home, and it provides a transition period between hospital and home for the veteran, his family, and his friends.

Nursing home care also frees VA hospital beds for the more critically ill, Naser added.

Euhl Accepted Into ASBO Conference

Robert J. Euhl, of Antioch, has been accepted into the Conference of American Small Business Organizations, a 25-year old, nationwide organization of independent businessmen.

As an independent trucking contractor he has met the qualifications for membership, and in accepting his application, Roger L. MacBride, Vice Chairman of the Conference, said, "CASBO has offered its membership to independent trucking contractors because these professional drivers are independent businessmen in the tradition of the American free enterprise system."

They have a substantial capital investment and annually transport tons of cargo, and have a cash flow of tens of thousands of dollars. We feel that the recognition due independent trucking contractors for their decades of distinguished service to America is long overdue."

Robert Euhl contracts with E. L. Murphy Trucking Company, a major irregular route carrier.

Hans Brinker Set For This Month

The Christmas Season is upon us and one of the sure signs is the fifth annual PM&L's children's production, "Hans Brinker, or the Silver Skates," directed by Valerie Hunley. This production will be presented at 2:30 p.m. on December 6, 7, 13, and 14 at the PM&L Theatre, 877 Main St., Antioch, Ill.

Reservations are being received and seating is limited so it is advised to call early for reservations to Ricky Apostol, 395-1217. The story of "Hans Brinker" begins on St. Nicholas Eve in Holland, and it is a tale of suspense, intrigue, humor, and drama that will appeal to both young and old. The costuming is colorful and the set is one of PM&L's best.

Many elements of mystery create this suspenseful production and audiences will be on the edge of their seats wondering — will they find the money that disappeared ten years ago? Will Hans' father who fell off a dyke and lost his memory get well? Who does the mysterious gold watch belong to? Will Hans and Gretel win the Silver Skates?

Members of the cast are Steven Patwell (Hans Brinker), Kathy Walpole (Gretel), Shirley Jensen (Dame Brinker), Josef Hunley (Raff Brinker), Pam Hunley, Joanne Apostol, George Ramsay, John Cadwell, Frank Rojek, Sonia Slovinsky, and Joe Lisk.
